QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT AND SAFETY POLICY

OQOTECH S.L. is dedicated to the validation of computerized systems and process automation in regulated environments, providing support in all phases of the process. Our main objective is the satisfaction and confidence of our customers, so we have an integrated system for quality and environmental management based on the UNE-EN ISO 9001:2015 and UNE-EN ISO 14001:2015 standards.

For this, we have an excellent team of professionals, guaranteeing the best and most complete technical advice.

OQOTECH's direction is committed to the achievement, improvement and maintenance of;

Manage and provide an excellent service, continuously improving our integrated management system, by actively listening to our customers, employees and environment, as well as promoting the protection of the environment and the health of our workers.

Comply with the applicable legal and regulatory requirements, defined by our customers and other additional requirements that Oqotech voluntarily subscribes to.

Minimize the environmental impact of our activities, paying special attention to the generation of waste and the consumption of raw materials.

Eliminate hazards and reduce risks.

Maintain a continuous and quality training of all our employees.

Maintain processes, products and services supplied externally in accordance with the requirements demanded. Maintaining validated suppliers, provided that there are no claims related to the contracted supply.

Complying with applicable requirements related to IMPARTIALITY and CONFIDENTIALITY in the provision of our services.

Define annual objectives and goals to be met in order to improve the integrated management system related to quality and environmental care.

Make available to the fulfillment of the objectives the necessary resources that are within our reach, within available technological options and financial requirements of the company.

Commitment to ZERO paper use

Signature:

Date 10th Septembre, 2021.